

LOOKING

for the “perfect job”?

If you are in sales, you can probably sell anything — widgets, vacuums, clothing, cars. Sure, conveniences such as these are useful to the general public, but what kind of personal satisfaction and compounding wealth do you actually receive? The answer is probably slim to none. We came up with a list of ‘talking points’ (values, earning expectations, flexibility, stability, etc.) to look for and consider when searching for that perfect job.

Amazingly, United American’s Exclusive Agency Division offers each and every one of these! Even though you as UA Exclusive Agents already have the perfect job, maybe you can use this as a checklist in your recruiting efforts to compare our opportunity!

www.uabbranch.com

- Integrity in practice
- Quality training available
- Self satisfaction (customer truly benefits)
- Product variety
- Outstanding advance commissions
- Direct to consumer “in home” product
- Production rewards
- Future potential of market success
- Management opportunities based on results
- Management succeeds only if sales staff succeeds
- The term “unlimited income” is a reality, not a myth
- Residual income growth opportunity
- Outstanding recruiting bonuses
- Limited travel
- Immediate high income potential
- Transition income (base and, or advance)
- Outstanding persistency bonuses
- Company has and promotes name recognition
- Proven marketing programs
- Quality lead programs provided to T.E.A.M.
- No ivory towers
- Sales Conventions to exotic locations
- Flexibility (own work hours)
- Quality websites for information

The only degree needed is the degree of desire to succeed.