

Are You on Track for Paradise?

If you haven't done it already, mark your calendar for June 29 - July 3, 2005. That's the date when all your hard work and dedication in 2004 pays off! Great food, exciting entertainment, fantastic events and activities...and it's all designed around YOU! You are the best, and you continue to prove it year after year.

United American works hard to create memories at Convention that will last a lifetime. Yet Convention is also a time to motivate you. We want you coming back every year to receive the recognition you deserve and to create new memories. At Fiestamerica Grand at Coral Beach, Cancun, you'll do that and so much more!

Fiestamericana Grand is one of the leading hotels of the world, and is one of only four AAA Five Diamond Resorts in the Caribbean. You'll indulge in a world of spectacular beauty and world-class luxury and amenities.

Get up at dawn and pack your day full of activity or lie by the pool and let the Caribbean sun warm your body and spirit.

You're coming down the stretch of spring and heading toward the starting line of summer – about halfway to qualification for next year's Convention. Are you on schedule to be part of the spectacular celebration in Cancun?

If not, now is the time to kick it into high gear! It will be a great opportunity to renew acquaintances, talk shop, and spend quality time with friends and loved ones. Branch Convention is the ultimate family reunion, and we want all our family to be there!

Remember, the Fourth Month Persistency Report is now used to determine Convention attendance and award and honor recipients. Your CLOB rate must be below 36%. In order to attend Convention, an individual/branch must also have growth in in force premium.
