

United American Rated A+ Superior By A.M. Best Company

A good partner makes all the difference.

At United American, the solid relationship we have with our field force has resulted in a rating of A+ Superior from A.M. Best Company. Without your outstanding selling ability and quality business service along with our expertise in providing a comprehensive product line, we wouldn't have been selected as one of the nation's top-rated insurers.

United American's overall company rating from Best indicates to the public and the competition that UA is consistently able to fulfill obligations and provide the financial strength it takes to protect policyholders' interests, as well as yours.
