New Underage Health Marketing Tools

We know what you have been thinking. “Gosh, wouldn’t it be great to have an Underage Health brochure and door hanger?” Aiming to please as always, we are proud to introduce two new tools to your Underage Health marketing kit: the Underage Health brochure and door hanger. These new pieces are sure to boost your Underage sales. Best of all, they are free!

The Underage Health brochure (F3781) grabs prospects’ attention by emphasizing United American’s affordable coverage alternatives. The brochure contains market information, outlines UA advantages, and acquaints the customer with our Company. This is an introductory piece designed to pique interest and create contact between you and the customer. A companion insert sheet (F3783) is also available to use with the Plexiglas stands.

UAF3781 is available in jurisdictions marked with an “X” at press time.

The new Underage Health door hanger (UADH2) is a useful piece to leave for prospects who are not at home. This door hanger has a unique feature — the bottom portion is a detachable business reply card! The prospect simply fills in the back of the card and drops the postage-paid reply in the mail. You will never miss an opportunity again! The door hanger also contains UA’s mission statement and a space designated for your business card.
